- Waikiki Beach – It's a beachfront neighborhood of Honolulu, on the south shore of the island of Oahu, in Hawaii, United States. Waikiki consists of 5 beaches which are Kuhio Beach, Gray's Beach, Fort DeRussy Beach, Kahanamoku Beach and Waikiki Beach.
- Diamond Head Crater - Diamond Head is the name of a volcanic tuff cone on the Hawaiian island of Oahu and known to Hawaiians as Leahi, most likely from lae browridge, promontory' plus ahi tuna because the shape of the ridgeline resembles the shape of a tuna's dorsal fin.Its English name was given by British sailors in the 19th century, who mistook calcite crystals on the adjacent beach for diamonds.
- Halona Blow Hole - On windy days when the tide is high, the ocean breeze sends the waves rolling on to the shore where the rock formation then shoots sea spray high into the air through the cave acting like a geyser. It is not always at its best every day though. The blowhole is most active when the tide is high and the winds are strong. This is a big tourist spot in Hawaii.
- Sandy Beach - is a beach on the South Shore of Oahu in Hawaii. It is known for its excellent bodyboarding and bodysurfing opportunities due to shore break that breaks very close to the shore, and consistent barrels all along the beach. Consequently, more injuries occur per year at Sandy Beach than any other beach in Hawaii, earning it the infamous nickname, "break-neck" beach.
- Polynesian Cultural Center - Within eight simulated tropical villages, performers demonstrate various arts and crafts from throughout Polynesia. Visitors may also take a free shuttle tour of the university and see the Laie Hawaii Temple and its associated visitors' center of the LDS Church.Enjoy the tradition of the luau at PCC held in a covered outdoor venue against a background of waterfalls and lush gardens.“ HA~Breath of Life” – a story of passion , ignited by fire, song & dance. The symbolic story of Mana and his beloved Lani, punctuated by Polynesian dance, music & blazing fire knives. It is a Pacific isle saga of birth & death, love & family, triumph & tragedy.
