CAPE TOWN

- Table Mountain National Park - previously known as the Cape Peninsula National Park, is a national park in Cape Town, South Africa, proclaimed on 29 May 1998, for the purpose of protecting the natural environment of the Table Mountain Chain, and in particular the rare fynbos vegetation. The park is managed by South African National Parks. The property is included as part of the UNESCO Cape Floral Region World Heritage Site.
- Cape Malay Quarter - It is a former township, situated on the slopes of Signal Hill above the city centre and is an historical centre of Cape Malay culture in Cape Town. Malay Quarter is traditionally a multicultural area. The area is known for its brightly coloured homes and cobble stoned streets.
- Castle of Good Hope - The Castle of Good Hope is a star fort built in the 17th century in Cape Town, South Africa. In 1936 the Castle was declared a historical monument (now a provincial heritage site)
- Seal Island - Seal Island is a small land mass located 5.7 kilometres off the northern beaches of False Bay, near Cape Town, in South Africa. The island is so named because of the great number of Cape fur seals that occupy it.
- Cape Point - Cape Point is a promontory at the southeast corner of the Cape Peninsula, which is a mountainous and scenic landform that runs north-south for about thirty kilometres at the extreme southwestern tip of the African continent in the Republic of South Africa.
- Boulders Bay Penguin - It is a popular tourist stop because of a colony of African penguins which settled there in 1982. Boulders Beach forms part of the Table Mountain National Park.
- Stellenbosch - Paarl and Franschhoek valleys form the Cape Winelands, the larger of the two main wine growing regions in South Africa. The South African wine industry produces about 1,000,000,000 litres of wine annually.

PILANESBERG

- Pilanesberg National Park - a guide game drive with an opportunity to view and photograph the abundant wildlife at close range (Children under 6 years old are not allowed). It accommodates the Africa "Big Five" healthy populations of lion, leopard, black and white rhino, elephant and buffalo. A wide variety of rare and common species exist like the nocturnal brown hyena, the fleet-footed cheetah, the majestic sable, as well as giraffe, zebra, hippo, crocodile and more.

SUN CITY

- Sun City - otherwise known as "The City That Never Sleeps" - A city surrounded by acres of lush, untamed Africa, every day and night from the heart of an ancient volcano, Sun City erupts to rock you like you've never been rocked before
